

It takes Cents to make dollars. It takes sense to keep dollars

This man knew enough to put seed into the ground and it grew into a crop. Now he knows enough to put dollars in the bank and grow a fortune. He knows if he plants grain it grows; if he plants dollars they grow. But dollars don't fear weather conditions.

MAKE GOOD USE OF PALACES

Royal Residences in Europe Have Been Converted Into Hospitals for Wounded Soldiers.

The necessities of war have transformed the uses of the royal palaces of Europe. They are nearly all turned into hospitals. Such are the Winter palace on the Neva, the Kremlin at Moscow, Tsarskoe Selo and Livadia, and in Italy not only the Quirinal and Queen Margherita's palace in the Via Veneto, but the queen is directing a military hospital in a wing of the Vatican.

Not only have Verona and Monza been put at the disposal of the war office, but the pope has done the same with Castel Gandolfo.

The Elysee palace is given over to war work, and Buckingham palace is not a hospital simply because there is no need for it, so the king and queen use it largely to receive soldiers and to entertain the wounded.

The palaces at Berlin and elsewhere in Germany are all turned into military hospitals, and the Germans have devoted King Albert's palace at Brussels to the same use. The English turned the kaiser's stately pleasure palace, the Achilleion, on the Ionian island of Corfu, in Greece, to the same purpose for the benefit of the Serbian army.

The wife of Ferdinand has made part of his palace at Sofia into a military hospital, but the Austrian invaders of Montenegro used the palace at Cetinje as barracks.

MADE HIT WITH MANSFIELD

Actor Quick to See Good Piece of "Business" in Error of One of His Supporters.

Now that Arnold Daly is reviving "Beau Brummell," various anecdotes of the late Richard Mansfield, who created the title role, are being revived. W. J. Ferguson, who acted the valet in the original production and who is now one of the pirates in "Treasure Island," has remembered one.

In the character of the valet it was Ferguson's place to hand the Beau his gloves, his stick, and finally his hat. Upon the opening night he proffered the hat to Mansfield, turned the wrong way around. Had the Beau put on the hat in the way it was handed to him and strolled down Piccadilly or Bond street, the faux pas might have created a scandal. When Ferguson discovered his error he turned pale under his make-up.

Mansfield was quick to grasp the situation, and with one of his most courtly bows gave the hat back to the valet, so that he might turn it around, which Ferguson did with pantomimic apology.

As Mansfield put on the hat and passed out of the door he whispered to Ferguson: "That's a good piece of business; keep it in."

LISTENING OVER TELEPHONE.

Listening in on the telephone is not a new thing, nor is it peculiar to New York. A newspaper correspondent in Dover, England, was summoned under the defense of the realm the other day for attempting to elicit information and for communicating information concerning the movement and disposition of troops which might be of use to England's enemies. The defendant, it was alleged, gave important information to a press agency over the telephone. In accordance with instructions, the telephone supervisor listened to the conversation and took it down in writing. For the defense, however, it was contended that the information was commonplace. The magistrates upheld this view and dismissed the summons.

Pure Drinking Water Important. You should be extremely careful that the water you drink is pure. Typhoid germs are particularly likely to harbor in water that stands and to get into water which is in the sluice of some drain. Boiling will kill the germs and the peculiar flat taste which it then has can be easily overcome by shaking it up thoroughly and injecting a dash of carbonated water.
